

(113)
Lib^o C

Officer to levie the said debts acknowledged or recovered upon any the goods of such debtor or Debtors against whom such execution is sued & taken out. And in case it shall happen that two or more executions be served upon the same goods such execution shall be first levied w^{ch} was first served. But if afore any execution served any one recovering by Judgment of Court shall enter a plea in the County or hundred Court or alledge or suggest that the goods of the partie against whom the execution or executions are awarded are not sufficient to satisfy his debt recovered to the said partie, so alledging or suggesting if other executions be served afore him no execution shall be granted in that case to one or more or if any be granted and not served they shall be superseded and revoked and a writt of Partition shall be directed to the Sheriff requiring him to divide the goods and chattels of such partie named upon the writt among all the parties recovering by judgment of Court accord to the proportion of their recoveries which together with their names shall be specified severally upon the said writt (except that all debts and accompts to the Lord Proprietarie in his own immediate right without assignment otherwise growing due then by fine or forfeiture onely shall be paid afore debts due to other creditors and all Fees payments and contributions due to publick uses Judges and officers by any act of assembly shall be paid afore other debts and all Debts due to any Inhabitant of the Province shall be first satisfied afore foreiners debts and that all debts growing due for wine hot waters or other licquors shall be paid in the last place after all other debts are satisfied and not afore. And where an execution is served upon ones servants come chattell or any other goods or Chattells or upon the body or person