

(49)
Lib^o C

of another to commit such perjury Conspiracie which is unlawfull combination of two or more persons against anothers life fame or goods Scandalous or contemptuous words or writings to the dishonour of the Lord Proprietarie or his Lieutenant Generall for the time being or of any of the Councill Exercising within the province any juridictions or authority which ought to be derived from the Lord Proprietary without lawfull power or Commission from or under him Contempts & Misdemeanors against lawfull ordinances or proclamations Abuses of publique Judges or Officers Unlawfull Assembly which is the disorderly meeting of three or more persons in a company to commit with force an unlawfull Act Forgery which is the counterfeiting of deeds or to acknowledge any fine deed recognisance or bill in the name of another not privy or consenting to the same Deceit or cosenage which is the damaging of another by some undue slight false news which is the spreading of false reports to the disturbance of the peace or duty of the people Bribery which is the accepting of or contracting for a reward for doing of Justice Extortion is the taking or demanding greater fees then are limited by the law in such things as are by law provided for Oppression which is the undue use of power and authority to the unjust greivance of another Using false weights or measures Sending in paym^t unsound Tobacco and such unsound Tobacco shall be burned All injuries done to an Indian in person or goods Servants manning without giving satisfaction to the Master or Mistress borrowing by Night or Clothing of anothers Servant without the knowledge and consent of the Master or Mistress Transporting out of the Province or over the