

Antinomian, Barrowist, Roundhead, Separatist, or any other name or term, in a reproachfull manner relating to matter of Religion, shall for every such offence forfeit and loose the sume of tenne shillings sterling, or the value thereof, to be levied on the goods and Chattels of every such offender and offenders, the one halfe thereof to be forfeited and paid unto the person and persons of whom such reproachfull words or words shall be spoken or uttered, and the other halfe to the Lord Prop^{ty} and his heirs Lord & Prop^{ty} of this Province. But if such person or persons who shall at any time utter or speak any such reproachfull words or Language shall not have goods & Chattels sufficient and overt within this Province to be taken to satisfie the penalty aforesaid, or that the same be not otherwise speedily satisfied, that then the person or persons so offending shall publikly be whipt & shall suffer imprisonment without Bail or mainprize untill he, she or they respectively shall satisfie the party so offended by such reproachfull language, by asking him or her respectiboly forgiveness for such his or her offence before the Magistrate or chiefe officer or officers of the town or place where such offence shall be given. And

Be it further likewise Enacted by the authority and consent aforesaid, that every person and persons within this Province that shall at any time hereafter profane the Sabbath or Lord's day called Sunday by frequent swearing drunkennes, or by any unseemly or disorderly Rorvation, or by working on that day, when absolutely necessary doth not require it, shall for every such first offence forfeit 2^s. 6^d. sterling, or the value thereof: and for the second offence 5^s sterling, or the value thereof: and for the third offence, and soe for every time he shall offend in the like manner afterwards tenne shillings sterling, or the value thereof. And if such offender or offenders shall not have goods & Chattels sufficient within this Province to satisfie any of the said penalties respectively hereby imposed for profaning the Sabbath or Lord's day called Sunday as aforesaid, that in every such case the party so offending shall for the first and second offence in that kinde be imprisoned till he or shee shall publikly in open Court before the chiefe Command^{er} Judge or Magistrate of that County, Town or precinct where such offence shall be committed acknowledge the offence he hath in that respect given ag^t God & the good Civill government of this Province: and for the third offence, and for every time after shall be publikly whipt. And whereas the enforcing of the ~~Conscience~~ Conscience in matters of Religion hath frequently fallen out to be of dangerous consequence