

Owner of the Second Tract shall hold all that is hereof of the former Survey and all former Surveys whatsoever on both sides for the year is not granted perch by perch as the Surveyor measures it but Grant is uno statu all at once of every part of it And if any man Tree or Trees stand within another man's Land the Owner of the said in whose Land the said Trees stand shall not on any pretence cut down or destroy the said Tree or Trees Except he first Give Notice to the Owner of that Land whose Bound such Tree is, and there in the presence either plant other sufficient Log or Cedar post or Stone or Stone in the Head and place of that Tree under the penalty of Six pounds Sterling to be paid to the party whose Bound the said Tree was to be recovered by Action of Debt &c. And it is hereby made Lawfull for every man having such Tree or Trees within another man's Land and having a Special Warrant of Refurvey or Order of Provinciall Court for refurvey, or order of County Court for Refurvey of their Land to Ascertain his Bounds having Asked leave and being denied with Surveyor Jury witnesses and Chain Carriers go on such Land whereon or whereon his Marked Tree stands and from such Marked Tree measure his Course and distance required provided he make all fences as good and tight as they were found and that he nor any one along with him in measuring the same do not Manifest Damage Detriment or Harm to the Owner of the Land wherein they goe or if accidentally any Damage happen that then in such Case he proffer and within three days make reparation and Amends And be it Enacted by the Council aforesaid That no man shall have Tenp Cent Given him for precise Number of perches Except it be by the Surveyor Tenp Cent to reach to a Marked Tree or other Place