

331
as near as may be according to the Laws of England - and the Clerk of the respective County Court committing - or Neglecting his Duty herein shall forfeit and pay one Thousand pounds of Tobacco and (some one half to His Majty for Supports of Government the other half to him or them that will sue for the same to be recovered in any Court of Record &c. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That no person or persons aforesaid shall presume to Range in the Forest or Woods after wild Cattle or Horses without a Licence for this So doing from His Excellency the Governour for the time being under the penalty and forfeiture of five thousand pounds of Tobacco for every Wild Horse Mare or Mare foale Cow or Cow foale that such persons so ranging shall take or Kill or Carry away alive or dead the one half to the King for the use aforesaid the other half to him or them that shall sue for the same to be Recovered as aforesaid And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid that any person or persons whatsoever that shall Kill any unmarked Swine or Shoal being above three months old if it shall not be ~~done~~ upon his <sup>own</sup> Land or in Company with his or their own Hogs shall be deemed taken and reputed an Hogsstealer and restore to the right Owner thereof four shillings for every Hogg or Hogg so killed or suffer such other punishment as the Justice or Commissioners before whom he or they shall be Legally convicted - direct and Judge And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That every Hall Kill every Subj<sup>ct</sup>