

39 province than shall be performed or performed by her self.

And be it further enacted that any master, or officer or other person what so ever that shall transport or convey providence by land or water any Freeman being indebted by Land or otherwise to any inhabitant thereof without such person or the said Governour General or Secretary aforesaid shall be liable to pay to such debtors Engagements and damages to the person or persons to whom such debts or damages respectively shall be due within this province except the sum of thirteen pence per pound or that the Transporter or Conveyer aforesaid person or persons procure such person or persons to whom such debts and damages

respectively shall be due within this province except the sum of

thirteen pence per pound or that the Transporter or Conveyer aforesaid person or

persons procure such person or persons to whom such debts and damages

respectively shall be due within this province except the sum of

thirteen pence per pound or that the Transporter or Conveyer aforesaid person or

persons procure such person or persons to whom such debts and damages

respectively shall be due within this province except the sum of

thirteen pence per pound or that the Transporter or Conveyer aforesaid person or

persons procure such person or persons to whom such debts and damages

respectively shall be due within this province except the sum of

thirteen pence per pound or that the Transporter or Conveyer aforesaid person or

persons procure such person or persons to whom such debts and damages

respectively shall be due within this province except the sum of

thirteen pence per pound or that the Transporter or Conveyer aforesaid person or

persons procure such person or persons to whom such debts and damages

respectively shall be due within this province except the sum of

thirteen pence per pound or that the Transporter or Conveyer aforesaid person or

persons procure such person or persons to whom such debts and damages

respectively shall be due within this province except the sum of

thirteen pence per pound or that the Transporter or Conveyer aforesaid person or

persons procure such person or persons to whom such debts and damages

respectively shall be due within this province except the sum of

thirteen pence per pound or that the Transporter or Conveyer aforesaid person or

persons procure such person or persons to whom such debts and damages

respectively shall be due within this province except the sum of

thirteen pence per pound or that the Transporter or Conveyer aforesaid person or

persons procure such person or persons to whom such debts and damages

respectively shall be due within this province except the sum of

thirteen pence per pound or that the Transporter or Conveyer aforesaid person or