

Eight hundred and twenty one Ann Arundels and Baltimore Countys severall other divisions or partitions Lines and Land marks was made relating to the Bounds of both the said Countys

Be it Enacted by the Quens most excellent Majesty and with the Advice and Consent of her Majestys Good and Lawfull Councill and Assembly of this Province and the Authority of the Same that such partitions and Divisions Lines and Land marks as by the Directions of the said Act were made shall remain firm and stable for ever

And whereas there are severall Countyes that are divided by navigable Rivers and waters yet made how farre the Jurisdiction of each County shall extend on the River

Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid that every County lying on any navigable River in this Province shall extend its Jurisdiction from the shore to the Channel of the River that divideth the County and divideth from the other County by the Channel of the said River and that when any Ship or Vessel shall ride at Anchor in the Channel of such River proceed may be served on board the said Ship by the Officer of either County that can first serve it but when moved by any Vessel on the Land shall be supposed to lye in that County to which shore she is fastned if made

December 7th 1704

Compared with the original Bill read and assented to by the House of Burgesses
Wayland

December 8th 1704

Assented to by her Majestys
Hon^{ble} Councill
William C. Council

December 9th 1704

On behalf of her Majesty I will this be a Law

Jo: Jacob Seymour.

