

And the more of them shall according to the proportion of them Estates if it will beare it. But if the Estates be the more considerable that it will not extend to afew. And it is granted that such Orphans shall be bound Apprentices to some handicraft Trade or other profession at the discretion of four but not more than twenty years of age except some Justice or Justice will warrant against them for the benefit of the small Estates they have without the favour of the Court with which the great or small shall allways be delivered to the Orphans at the years appointed by Law.

That all cattle horses & Sheeps be returned in kind by the Guardians according to Age & Number when as he will them And before the Court had before making of this Act Estates of Orphans in their hands with they kept for the maintenance And giving the yearly sum of the augmentation or diminution of the Orphans Stock with by Certificates or witnesses of the Guardians was usually confirmed before they came to Age And Disputes thereupon arise in the several Courts how such portions should be provided with And the Act of Orphans Estates how to be given them, It is hereby declared of all portions of Orphans Stock before the making of this Act shall be bound to deliver to the Orphan when he comes to Age Six or Seven any of any kind as he is possessor of when he gives his Act to the next Orphans Court. Concerning the Publication hereof That All Plate & money be provided & delivered in kind according to the weight & quantity, that other house hold stuff & Lumber be appraised in money and the value thereof paid by the Guardian