

An Act for Revising Certain Laws in this Province

26

Forasmuch as many good and beneficial laws have formerly been made in this Province which being Comparative with of them selves expire if not renewed and continued by this present assembly hereinafter enacted by the Right honorable the Lord Proprietor by & with the Advice & consent of the Upper and lower houses of this Generall Assembly that the Act Entituled an Act concerning the Gaage of Tobacco that and the Act Entituled an Act for killing of wolves and the Act Entituled an Act concerning a Register of births marriages & burials and the Act for appoynt-ing of Civill officers, and the Act for military discipline, And the Act concerning the height of houses And the Act concerning the Conveyances of all houses concerning the State & Civill affairs and the Act concerning the Officers that have Ref-erds And the Act for publication of Marriages And the Act for Encouragement of sowing English Grains, And the Act concerning y^e paym^t of Fees due from Civill persons, And an Act concerning for Encouragement of ordinary Seaports And an Act concerning proceedings at Law And an Act concerning taxable persons, And an Act for imposing a Fee on them who shall be married in this Province And an Act appoynting Sheriffs in this Province, An Act concerning y^e Secretary & Adversaries thereunto And an Act prohibiting arrests upon y^e Law of England, & Lawes of Genall Muster And an Act appoynting Sheriffs to take the oaths in this Province part intitled an Act for killing of wolves