IN A bill to rectify a Mistake in the writing of the Last will and Testament of the Reverend John Edwards late of Baltimore County deceased and for selling an Estate of Inheritance in fee simple on the said will the Deviser in the said will named Whereas the Reverend John Edwards late Minister of the Gospel in the County of Baltimore made his Last will and Testament in writing bearing date the first day of January in the year of our Lord Christ one thousand seven hundred and Ten, and therein and thereby devised and bequeathed unto his Grandson John Stokes, Son of John Stokes of the said County of Baltimore Gentleman a piece of Land lying in Baltimore County and called by the name of Westwood containing two hundred and twenty acres more or less, but either by the Ignorance or Negligence of the writer of the said will, Contrary to the Intent and purpose of the said John Edwards only the Estate for life is thereby given and bequeathed to the said John Stokes the Son, and it appearing to this Generall Assembly, that the Intent and designe of the said John Edwards was to give and bequeath an Estate of Inheritance in
