On the behalf of our Sovereign Lady Queen Anne of Great Britain
I will this be a Law
Edw. Lloyd Prind

An Act to restrain the practice <sup>used</sup> in taking goods by fieri facias and selling them by venditione <sup>there</sup> exponas

WHEREAS many the good people of this province have of late been greatly dampified and abused in their Estates by sheriffs who upon receipt of any fieri facias or attachment issued out of the Courts of this province take by virtue of such writs great quantities of goods more than will satisfy the debt damages and cost in such writs mentioned and keep them along time in their custody under pretence of want of buyers whereupon it often happens upon the return of the said sheriffs that writs of venditione exponas are issued commanding them to put the said goods to sale which for the most part hath been done privately and goods of great value have not <sup>been</sup> sold for the tenth part of their value to the great loss of both the Debtor and Creditor, and to the ruin of some families for the prevention whereof for the future and to ascertain away and method whereby the strength of this province may securely act in writs of the like nature more to the benefit and Advantage of both Debtor and Creditor.

Be it Enacted by the Queen most Excellent Majesty and Her Council
