

92 And Whereas it appears to this generall Assembly that there is not as yet any provision made by any law of this province when after what manner the forty pounds of tobacco shall be and due payable to the ministers or incumbents of the severall parishes within this province which heretofore hath been the occasion of many disputes

Be it therefore enacted by the authority advice and consent of that when any minister shall at any time hereafter be lawfully admitted or inducted into any parish within this province he shall not by virtue of such his admission or induction have demand or receive from the Vestry of such parish the whole forty pounds of tobacco per pole for that year in which he is admitted or inducted but only such proportionable part of the same as shall be found to be his due Computing the time from the day of induction to the time of laying the next Levy for the County in which his parish lies And when it shall so happen that any minister or incumbent who hath been resident in any parish within this province shall dye or remove out of his parish then and in such cases the Vestry of that parish wherein he was incumbent shall at the time of the laying the next Levy for their County pay to such minister if he be alive or to his Ex^r or adm^r if he be dead such proportionable part of the forty pounds of tobacco as shall be due to him for such part of the year as he continued in the said parish Computing the same from the time of the laying the last Levy for the said County until the time of such his death or removal, And if any minister or incumbent that shall at any time hereafter be admitted or inducted into any parish within this province shall dye or remove again out of the same before any Levy be laid in that County where the said parish lies then the Vestry of the said parish shall at the time of the laying the next Levy in their County pay to such minister if he be alive or to his Ex^r or adm^r if he be dead so much of the forty pounds of tobacco per pole as shall be due to him Computing the same from the time of his admission or induction to the time of his death or removal and no manner of Law Statute or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding
