Examined

A Further Supplementary Act to the Act for Killing Wolves - Crows and Squirrels -

Whereas it is Represented to this present Generall Assembly - that there is no Sufficient Provision made in an Act of Assembly of this Province Entitled An Act for Killing Wolves Crows and Squirrels nor in the Supplementary Act thereof for Preventing the Inhabitants of this Province being Imposed upon by the bringing of Wolves heads out of the Neighbouring Colonies for Allowances in this, according to the said Act nor for preventing the Purchasing from Indians Old Dried heads or Scalps that have been killed in remote Parts we know not to for want of which the Inhabitants of this Province, but more especially the Inhabitants of those Counties bordering next unto our Neighbouring Colonies have for sundry Years Past Laine under a very great Burthen and Great Charges. Occasioned by the great Number of Wolves heads, that have been brought from those foreign parts for Allowances in those Counties contrary to the true Intent and Designe of the said Acts for remedy whereof for
