

Exam: An Act for continuing all Causes in the high Court of Appeals from the Court that was appointed to be hold in July ¹⁷²² Even to hundred and Twenty two for the time therein Menconed

Whereas by the Act of Assembly of this Province for Limiting the Continuance of Actions in the severall Courts within this Province and pertaining the Manner of taking the Evidence of Sea-faring men and Granting Appeals from the Chancery Court to the Council, no Cause is Suffered to continue therein longer than four Courts from the Court of Appearance, And Whereas the Diligency of some Causes in the Court of Appeals next proceeding July ¹⁷²² that aforesaid prevented the said Court from finishing what Business then depending, which was therefore continued to July Court last which was the last Court that one or more of those Causes could be continued, without transgressing the said Act, And forasmuch as a sufficient Number of the Members of that Court did not then meet to proceed to business the Causes then depending could not be heard nor regularly continued according to the strict Rules of Law so that the parties may be in danger of suffering, ^{wherein} their Default for prevention whereof Be it Enacted by the said Hon^{ble}

The Lord Proprietor by and with the Advice and Consent of his Lordships Governour and the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly of this Province That the Authority of the same that all Actions that were depending in the high Court of Appeals till July last be and stand in all Circumstances and to all intents and purposes, fully continued to the End of the said Court of Appeals that shall sit to do Business after this present General Assembly if discontinued or want of Continuance or other defect therein or anything in the said Act for Limiting the Continuance of Action in any wise not withstanding

October 24. 1722 Read and assented to by the Lower House of Assembly In Testimony Whereof
November the 3. 1722

October 26. 1722 Read and assented to by Upper House of Assembly and signed by James Shippon Esq: of

In behalf of his Lordship the Right Honourable the Lord Proprietor of this Province
James Shippon Esq: of

James Shippon Esq: of