

Things from without the Boundraft. And good sufficient to make for the County where it shall be committed...
Provided always that this Act shall not be construed to hinder any Ordinary Keeper from selling Liquors in their respective dwelling houses.

October the 20th 1725 Read and Assented to by the Lower House of Assembly & signed p^r Order

October the 20th 1725
Read and Assented by the Upper House of Assembly and signed p^r Order

November the 6th 1725 On behalf of the right honorable the Lord Proprietary of this province I will

In Testimony whereof

(The great Seal in Wax appendant) this be a Law of the Province

And An Act to confirm all Estates in Fee Simple to such persons as already have or hereafter shall purchase any the Lands lying in the new Town commonly called the Addition to the City of Annapolis or any Land adjoining to the said City of Annapolis commonly called the Town-pasture or Common and to invest them with the same Privileges within the City of Annapolis as other the Freeholders therein now have or hereafter may enjoy.

Whereas sundry Persons lately have and still do continue to purchase Lots or parcels of ground lying as well in the new Town commonly called the Addition to the City of Annapolis as in the Land adjoining to the said City of ^{Annapolis Commonly called the Town Pasture or Common} from the respective proprietors thereof and whereas the said Purchasers do design to settle and improve the said Lots but forasmuch as it may hereafter be doubted whether their Title to the said Lots are good and valid or that by Virtue of their respective purchases they may be entitled to the same Rights and Privileges that other the Inhabitants or Freeholders of the said City do now or hereafter may enjoy Be it therefore enacted by the Right Honourable the Lord Proprietors by and with the Advice and Consent of his Lordships Governour and the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly and the Authority of the same that the several Lots or parcels of ground already purchased or that shall hereafter happen to be purchased from the respective Proprietors thereof either in the said Addition to the City of Annapolis or the Land adjoining thereto called the Town pasture or Common be carefully Surveyed by some