AN ACT to enable the Commissioners for emitting Bills of Credit, to pay to William Mills, John Peacock, Peter Payne, Executor of Ralph Price, and Anne Gaitber, the Sums of Money therein mentioned.

WHEREAS the Sum of Thirty-one Pounds Two Shillings and Six-pence was allowed to a certain Andrew Mills, on the List of Debts due from the Publick for transporting Soldiers from Annapolis to George-Town, and it appears to this present General Assembly, that the said Allowance ought to have been made to William Mills, who was Owner of the Vessel in which the said Soldiers were transported; and whereas the Sum of Fifteen Pounds was allowed on the said List to John Peacock of Frederick County, which Allowance ought to have been made to John Peacock of Baltimore County; and whereas the Sum of Two Pounds Five Shillings was allowed on the said List to Joseph Price of St. Mary's County, which Allowance ought to have been made to Ralph Price of the said County; and whereas the said Ralph Price is dead, and Peter Payne is Executor of his last Will and Testament; and whereas it appears to this present General Assembly, that the Dwelling-House in the Occupation of Anne Gaitber, was in the Year Seventeen Hundred and Sixty-five pulled down and torn to Pieces by a Number of People, and that the said Anne hath since that Time rebuilt the same at her own Expence and repaired the Damage done, for which, at November Sessions Seventeen Hundred and Sixty-Six, an Allowance of One Hundred Pounds was made to the Representatives of Samuel Gaitber, deceased, of which the said Anne hath already received Seventy-five Pounds; and whereas it appears that she was entitled to the same Sum of Money last mentioned, as also to the remaining Sum of Twenty-five Pounds;
