

IV. And whereas it hath been doubted of what Value the Freehold in the said recited Act mentioned ought to be...

V. And he is hereby enacted, That no Juror shall be received as a qualified Juror in any Court within this Province, (the Mayor's Courts of the City of Annapolis excepted) unless such Juror shall have an Estate of Freehold...

VI. And he is further enacted, That instead of the Form of Recognizance of Bail prescribed by the Act, entitled, An Act for taking Special Bail in the several Counties in this Province, upon Actions or Suits depending in his Majesty's Provincial Court, and in the several County Courts of this Province, the following Form shall be observed and used in all Actions to be commenced from and after the End of this present Session of Assembly.

That is to say,

John Doe Plaintiff, against Richard Roe Defendant. YOU A, B, and C, D, do jointly and severally acknowledge yourselves Special Bail for the said Richard Roe, at the Suit of the said John Doe, in an Action of Debt brought by the said John Doe, against the said Richard Roe, in the Provincial Court. They acknowledge themselves to be content therewith this Day of ... before ...

To the Honourable the Justices of the Provincial Court.

Varying nevertheless the said Form, according as the Nature of the Action may require; and that the said Recognizance shall have the same Force and Effect, as any Recognizance of Bail acknowledged and taken in open Court.

VII. And he is further enacted, That the Justice or Justices, by and before whom any such Recognizance of Bail shall be taken and acknowledged, shall, and they are hereby required, carefully to examine into the Circumstances and Sufficiency of the Bail to be taken as aforesaid, and to be careful that they do not take any Recognizance of Bail, of Persons that shall not appear to them to have sufficient Estate within this Province to answer the same at the Time of taking and acknowledging thereof. Provided, That Nothing herein shall be construed to abridge or take away the Power of the Justices of the Provincial or County Courts within this Province, to make Rules and Orders for the Justifying Bails and making the same absolute, or to examine the Sureties upon Oath, touching the Value of their Estates, as by the said recited Act they are required to do.

VIII. And he is also enacted, That upon any Judgment hereafter to be rendered upon any Recognizance of Bail, it shall and may be lawful for the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs therein, to issue Execution against the Body, Goods, or Chattels, Lands or Tenements of the Defendant, as if the said Judgment were for his own proper Debt, any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

IX. And he is enacted and declared, That Execution may be issued on any Judgment rendered, or to be rendered in the Provincial Court, or in any County Court of this Province, with Stay of Execution, at any Time within one Year next after the Expiration of such Stay, provided that
