of jurors.

C H A P. XVII.

An ACT of indemnity,

WHEREAS the governor and the council, since the last session of the general assembly, upon the requisition of congress, marched the militia of this state out of the same, for the defence of this state and the states of Pennsylvania and Delaware, before it was expressly signified that the said militia should not be subjected to the continental articles of war, nor to any other articles of war than specified in the act to regulate the militia. And whereas the governor, during the invasion of this state, delegated the power of appointing militia officers to several persons in the respective counties, and empowered others to draw money out of the treasury of the eastern shore, advising the treasurer thereof to issue such sums as the persons so empowered to draw the same should order and direct. The General Assembly, having taken the premises into consideration, approve of the same:

Preamble.

II. Be it therefore enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the governor and the late council are and shall be indemnified, discharged, and saved harmless, from and against all suits, complaints, charges, and remonstrances, prosecutions and disturbances, of all persons whatsoever, for or on account of marching the militia out of this state, delegating the power of appointing militia officers, and empowering persons to draw money out of the treasury of the eastern shore.
