

C H A P.
X, XI, XII.

thereof to the inspector, to be kept by him for his justification; all which expences thereon shall be paid as by the said act is directed.

Salaries of inspectors, &c.
to be raised 50
per cent.

V. And be it enacted, That the salaries of inspectors, the rent of warehouses, and the price of inspection, shall be raised fifty per cent. throughout the state, for and during the continuance of this act, on the sums limited by resolve of convention, passed in September seventeen hundred and seventy-six.

Inspectors not liable for tobacco taken,
&c. by the enemy.

VI. And be it enacted, That no inspector or inspectors heretofore appointed, or who shall hereafter be appointed in virtue of this act, shall be liable to pay damages to the person holding any crop or transfer note, where the tobacco shall be taken from the warehouse, or otherwise destroyed by the enemies of this state.

Inspectors
heretofore appointed to act
till June 1.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the inspectors, who have been heretofore appointed by virtue of the act of assembly, entitled, An act for the special appointment of inspectors, made at a session of assembly, begun and held at the city of Annapolis, on the sixteenth day of June last, or by the supplement to the said act, to continue to act as inspectors until the first day of June next; and the said inspectors shall be entitled to and receive such reward for their trouble, and such rent for the warehouse, as in and by the said acts are directed.

C H A P. XI.

An ACT for the relief of John Veazey, and Thomas Brocchus Veazey, son and executor of John Veazey, deceased. (A private act.)

C H A P. XII.

An additional supplement to the act, entitled, An ACT to regulate the militia.

Preamble.

WHEREAS doubts are entertained to the mode of issuing executions for the recovery of fines imposed by a court-martial, agreeable to the third section of the act, entitled, A supplement to the act, entitled, an act to regulate the militia, on persons neglecting or refusing to attend, when ordered out on actual service,

Copy of the sentence of court-martial
to be transmitted to the county clerk
within ten days after adjudication, &c.

II. Be it therefore enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That after the adjudication and imposing of any fine or fines, by any court-martial, for the offences aforesaid, upon refusal, delay or neglect, by the party, of payment of the fine so adjudged, within ten days, a copy of the sentence of the court-martial shall be transmitted to the clerk of the county, who, immediately after the receipt thereof, shall issue a writ or writs of feri facias against the goods, chattels, lands and tenements of the person or persons so fined, on which such proceedings shall and may be had as in other cases and judgments where writs of feri facias are usually issued; and that all fines already imposed and adjudged as aforesaid, and which have not been paid, shall be recovered as by this act directed.

III. And,