C H A P. VI.

An ACT for reviving and continuing the actions and process in Worcester county court.

WHEREAS the justices of Worcester county court omitted to meet on the first Tuesday of January last, to which the said court was adjourned by an act of assembly of this state passed the last session :

Preamble.

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That every civil action, suit, process, and proceeding, which were depending in the said county court of Worcester, and which were not determined before the aforesaid first Tuesday of January last, shall be and are hereby revived and continued until the first Tuesday in June next, all and every of which actions, suits, process, and proceedings, shall stand, remain, and be, in the same plight, quality, and condition, to all intents and purposes, at the court to be held on the said first Tuesday in June next, as they were in at the last November court in said county, and the said county court of Worcester may and shall respectively proceed in, hear, try, and determine, or continue each and every of the said actions and suits, in the same manner they might have determined or continued the same at the November court last past, any thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

Actions, &c. not determined, to be in the same state as they were in at November court.

III. And be it further enacted, That all criminal process and proceedings, which were depending in or returnable to Worcester county November court last, for offences committed since the formation of the new government of this state, and still remain undetermined, shall be in the same situation, state, and condition, at the next court to be held for Worcester county, on the said first Tuesday in June next, as they were at the last November court : And the justices of Worcester county court for the time being, shall and may then proceed to the hearing and determining, or further continuing and thereafter hearing and determining, the said criminal process and proceedings, as fully and effectually as the said court could or might lawfully have done at the last November court of the said county, any thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

Criminal process undetermined to be in the same situation, &c.

IV. Provided always, That this act, or any thing therein contained, shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to any suit or action depending in Worcester county court aforesaid, that may have abated or become abateable by the death of either of the parties, any thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

Proviso.
