V, VI, VII.

An ACT to vest an estate of inheritance in fee simple of certain lands in Anne-Arundel county, in Basil Burges of the same county, and to enable him to sell or otherwise dispose of the same. (A private act.)

C H A P. VI.

A supplement to the act for the erecting new warehouses in the town of Bladensburg.

WHEREAS the justices of Prince-George's county were ^{Preamble.} authorized and required, by the original act, amongst other things, to assess and rate, on the property of the inhabitants of the said county, by two equal assessments, in the years seventeen hundred and eighty and seventeen hundred and eighty-one, a sum not exceeding fifteen thousand pounds current money, together with the sheriff's commission of two and a half per centum for collection, and the said justices were empowered and required, at their March court then next, to assess and rate one half of the said sum for the first assessment, and at their November court thereafter, to assess and rate a sum not exceeding the residue of the said sum for the second assessment: And whereas the acts of assembly of November session, by reason of the accident of fire that happened to the printing-office in the month of January last, did not reach the county in time, and the said justices, being met at an adjourned court held in February last for laying the county levy, having received information that they were directed to levy the said sum of fifteen thousand pounds current money in their next county assessment, for the purpose of building new warehouses at the said town of Bladensburg, did then proceed to make the said assessment, and the same hath been given out to the collector, and is in great part collected: And it being thought reasonable by the general assembly to confirm the said proceedings:

II. Be it therefore enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the assessment and collection so made shall stand, and is hereby confirmed, and the sheriff or collector shall, and he is hereby authorized and required to finish the said collection, and make the payments, in the same manner as if the whole sum had been directed to be levied by assessment at the said November adjourned court, any thing in the said act to the contrary notwithstanding; and the said justices, and sheriff or collector, and all others concerned, shall be and are hereby indemnified, for all and whatsoever may have been done relative to said assessment, in the same manner as if the assessment had been directed to be made at the adjourned court in the month of February aforesaid.
