XIV.

justices shall forthwith agree with some other person or persons, for doing what is determined, as aforesaid, to be necessary, or may be unfinished, as aforesaid, and shall take a bond for performance of such their agreement; and in case one of the two justices aforesaid should die or be removed, the other shall have as full power to act, as if such death or removal had not happened.

Bonds to be lodged with the county
clerks, &c.

LXVI. And be it enacted, That all bonds taken by the justices, in pursuance of this act, shall by them be lodged with the clerk of the respective counties, to be by him safely kept, within twenty days after the taking thereof.

Penalty on justices for neglect, &c.

LXVII. And be it enacted, That if any justice of the peace shall omit or neglect the duty enjoined and required of him, as to the making the contracts and taking and lodging the bonds aforesaid, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of eight hundred pounds of tobacco.

Sums contracted for to be assessed in
the county
charge, &c.

LXVIII. And be it enacted, That whatever sum or sums the justices aforesaid may contract for, as aforesaid, shall be assessed and allowed in the next county charge after the performance of such contract, and shall be deducted out of the tobacco money arising due for the rent of the house for which such sum or sums were paid, until the county shall be reimbursed.

Justices to have full power, &c.

LXIX. And be it enacted, That the justices of each respective county shall, and are hereby directed to have, a full, subsisting, and continuing power, at all times of the year, to put in execution so much of this act as relates to building, enlarging, and repairing, public warehouses, and to direct the buildings, enlarging and repairing any warehouses for the respective inspections appointed by this act, and any wharfs, prizes, cranes, and other conveniences, from time to time, as to them shall seem necessary, and expedient; and in case the proprietor, or guardian, husband, or attorney, of the proprietor of any warehouse, or any other person concerned therein, shall refuse or neglect to make such buildings, additions, repairs, or other necessary conveniences, as shall or may be wanting, at any other times of the year, and such as the said justices shall direct, it shall and may be lawful for the said justices, and they are hereby required to have the same done at the expence of the county; and the justices of such county shall receive so much of the rent of the said warehouse of the inspectors, which they are hereby obliged and directed to pay, as will reimburse the county the charges of such buildings, additions, and repairs; and if, upon application of the inspectors or the justices aforesaid, for building, enlarging, or repairing, any warehouses, wharfs, prizes, cranes, and other conveniences, such justices shall refuse or delay to do their duty therein, every justice, so neglecting or refusing, shall forfeit eight hundred pounds of tobacco.

Where warehouses have been repaired,
&c. at the
county ex-
pence, justices
to receive the
rents, &c.

LXX. And be it enacted, That in all cases under the late inspection law, where the owners or proprietors of warehouses have given the same up to be repaired or rebuilt at the expence of the county, and the rents already received have not reimbursed the monies advanced in rebuilding or repairing such warehouses, it shall and may be lawful for the justices of said counties, and they are hereby authorised and required to receive the rents of all such warehouses, from the inspector
