

ing-creek, on the land of Frisby Freeland, one inspector; at Lower-Marlborough, on the land of colonel William Fitzhugh, one inspector. In Charles county, at Benedict-town, one inspector; at Piles's fresh, on Mr. John Parnham's land, one inspector; at Lower Cedar-point, on Charles Jones's land, one inspector; at Chandler's-point, one inspector; at Nanjemoy, on the land of Richard Harrison; at Chickamuxen-creek, on the land of William Smallwood; at Pomonkey-creek, on the land of the late John Truman Stoddert, each under one inspector. In Somerset county, at Princess-Anne-town, and on the land of John Maddox, below the mouth of Back-creek, under two inspectors; on Coleburn's-creek, on the land of Outerbridge Horsley, and on Pocomoke, Rehoboth-town, under one inspection and two inspectors; on Wiccomico river, at the warehouse near Greenhill-town, and at the head of Barren-creek, on Nanticoke river, on the land of the late William Brown, under one inspection and two inspectors. In Talbot county, at Kingston, on the lot of William Gale, under one inspector; at Parson's landing, on the land belonging to James Lloyd, one inspector; at Emerson's landing, belonging to the heirs of George Maxwell, one inspector; at Bruff's landing, on Miles river, now the property of Anthony Banning, one inspector, provided a warehouse can be procured; at Thomas Sherwood's landing, on Broad-creek, one inspector; at Oxford, on the lot lately Richard Gildart's, one inspector. In Dorchester county, Henry Ennalls, junior, his warehouse; at Choptank ferry, one inspector; at the warehouse on little Choptank, now the property of Arthur Whitely, one inspector; at Vienna-town, on the land of the late Joshua Edmonston, one inspector. In Baltimore county, at Baltimore-town, two inspectors. In Harford county, at Otter-point landing, near the Red-cliff on Bush river, one inspector. In Prince-George's county, at Queen-Anne-town, one inspector; at Upper-Marlborough, on the land of Thomas Contee, one inspector; at Nottingham, on the land of James Russell, one inspector; at Bladensburg two inspectors; at Broad-creek, on the land of Enoch Magruder, one inspector; at Piscataway, on the land of John Baynes, one inspector; and on the land of Alexander Howard Magruder, one inspector. In Queen-Anne's county, on Samuel Blunt's dwelling plantation, one inspector; at Robert Brown's landing on Wye river, one inspector; at the head of Corfica-creek, on the land of William Hopper, one inspector; at the house commonly called Porter's warehouse, on the land of the late William Hackett, one inspector; at the house commonly called Pemberton's warehouse, one inspector. In Caroline county, at Choptank bridge, one inspector. In Worcester county, in Snow-hill-town, one inspector; at the warehouse in Newport-town, one inspector. In Montgomery county, at George-town, two inspectors.

LXXXIX. And be it enacted, That every penalty and forfeiture herein before by this act directed and inflicted (wherein no mode of recovery and application is given or made, if the same does not exceed eight hundred pounds of tobacco) it may be recovered before any justice of the peace, and if it exceeds that sum, in the general court, or any county court, by indictment or action of debt founded on this act (in which action it shall be sufficient for the plaintiff to allege, that the defendant or defendants are indebted to the plaintiff, or received to his use, the sums of tobacco by this act directed and inflicted, whereby

How penalties, &c. are to be recovered.