An ACT to enable the visitors of Anne-Arundel county school to qualify themselves to execute their trust.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that the late visitors of Anne-Arundel county school, from inattention, did not take, repeat, and subscribe, the oath of fidelity to this state, prescribed by the act to punish certain crimes and misdemeanors, and to prevent the growth of toryism, agreeable to the directions thereof, by means whereof the said visitors were disqualified to discharge the trust reposed in them: And whereas it is necessary, for the good government of the said school, that the said visitors should be enabled to discharge the said trust;

Preamble.

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said visitors, on their subscribing a declaration of their belief in the christian religion, and taking the several oaths required of visitors of schools by the constitution and laws of this state, shall from thenceforth be, and are hereby, vested with as full and ample powers as any visitors of schools have heretofore had and enjoyed.
