

him or them by this act, shall refuse or neglect to pay the said sums of money which he or they shall be respectively charged to collect, within the time or times limited by the special commissioners, he or they, so refusing or neglecting, shall forfeit and pay to the treasurer the sum of five pounds, and shall also pay all the arrearages, of such assessment which he was appointed to collect, to be levied by a warrant under the hand and seal of the said commissioners, and directed to the sheriff of Baltimore county, who is hereby authorized and empowered to execute such warrant upon the goods and chattels of such collector or collectors, and in case goods and chattels cannot be found, then to imprison such collector or collectors, until payment be made; and every collector so distrained on, and having made full satisfaction as aforesaid, is hereby empowered, without any further warrant, to distrain for his own use upon all such as neglect or refuse to pay the arrearages due; and the said collector or collectors shall, for his or their trouble, retain in his or their hands six-pence in the pound for all sums of money by him or them respectively collected.

C M A P.
XVII.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That in case the vendue master refuses to come to a settlement, quarterly, half yearly, or yearly, or to pay what may appear to be justly due on his sales, he shall forfeit, for every such offence, twenty-five pounds, or a sum not exceeding forty pounds, as may be adjudged by any two impartial persons, one to be chosen by the said special commissioners, and the other by the vendue master, the sum adjudged to be recovered as in case of debt not exceeding five pounds.

Penalty on vendue master, &c.

XXV. And be it enacted, That the special commissioners are au- thorised to call upon the town commissioners, for a final settlement of the monies by them collected for repairing of said streets, and in case of refusal to settle, the said town commissioners shall forfeit twenty-five pounds; and in case the said town commissioners shall refuse paying to the special commissioners the money due upon a settlement, they shall forfeit double the sum so due, to be recovered as hereafter directed, and applied to the purpose of this act.

Town commissioners to settle, &c.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That the treasurer is hereby empowered and required to receive all the money arising, as well from the aforesaid assessment, as also the fines and forfeitures imposed, and all other monies arising by virtue of this act; and the said treasurer shall keep a distinct account of all the rates and assessments made, or to be made, as aforesaid, and also all monies by him so received, and also of all disbursements and payments he shall make by orders from the special commissioners, whose orders to the said treasurer shall be sufficient discharges, which orders the special commissioners, or a majority of them, are hereby empowered to draw for the uses and purposes in this act.

Treasurer to receive money arising from fines, &c.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That the said treasurer, before he enters upon the execution of his said office, is hereby required to give a bond, with one or more sufficient sureties, to be by them the said special commissioners approved of, in the penalty of two thousand pounds current money, with condition for the payment of all such monies which shall come to his hand by virtue of this or any other act, according to the orders drawn on him as aforesaid, and not otherwise, and for the

To give bond,
&c.