

An ACT for the payment of the journal of accounts.

WHEREAS it appears, by the journal of accounts and list of debts, that there is now due from this state the sum of six thousand eight hundred and seventy-five pounds six shillings and eleven pence halfpenny current money: Preamble.

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland. That the treasurer of the western shore shall, and he is hereby authorized and required to deliver, to the several persons, their executors, administrators, assigns, or orders, or to such of them as shall offer to receive the same, the several sums of money to them allowed respectively, as they appear to be stated and ascertained by the journal of accounts and list of debts aforesaid. Treasurer to pay the journal, &c.

III. And be it enacted, That all or any of the public creditors on the journal, for money, may have their election to receive a certificate or certificates from the treasurer of the western shore, signed by him, and expressing the sum of current money due to such creditor or creditors, which shall be discounted by the collector in payment of the taxes due on the present assessment acts, or on any future assessments; or if not so discounted, the treasurer of the western or eastern shore shall receive the said certificates, and pay the money due thereon to the bearer out of the money now in the treasury, or which may hereafter be brought into the treasury by taxes or otherwise; and the intendant of the revenue may retain in his hands, out of the money due from Moses Rawlings or Richard Wilson, in consequence of their contracts with him, and out of the money received from major-general Smallwood, as much money as will pay off the journal of accounts. Creditors may receive certificates &c.

An ACT to continue the acts of assembly therein mentioned.
