ed.
regulate the militia, made at a session of assembly, begun and held at the city of Annapolis, on Monday the sixteenth day of June, seventeen hundred and seventy-seven, and the several supplementary acts thereto relating, shall be and are hereby revived and continued in full force.

II. And, That all insurrections and disturbances, which might prove dangerous to the state, may be timely suppressed or prevented, Be it Governor may call militia into service, &c.
enacted, That the governor, as often as such insurrections and disturbances shall happen, or he may have good cause to suspect or believe may speedily happen, shall have full power to call into actual service, without regard to classes, such part of the militia as he may judge necessary for the preventing, quieting, or suppressing, such insurrections or disturbances, and the same may station at such place or places as he may deem proper, and shall cause them to be relieved as often as he shall think necessary, so as that no company or body of militia shall be continued on duty longer than two months in any such service.

III. And be it enacted, That the governor shall be, and he is hereby And provide
