

and that some summary mode of proceeding should be adopted to enforce payment in case of default, Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said corporation, in case any of the said proprietors shall neglect to make the payments on the days stipulated and herein before mentioned, to write to the clerk of the court of that county in which the said defaulter shall reside, and order the said clerk to issue an attachment, ieri facias, or capias ad satisfaciendum, against the said person making default for the sum of money by him due and unpaid; and the execution so issued shall be made returnable to the court which shall first sit after the issuing thereof, and shall be as valid and effectual in law, to all intents and purposes, as if the same had issued on a judgment regularly obtained, according to the common and ordinary course of proceeding in a court of law.

C H A P.
XXIII.
May sit for subscriptions
money, &c.

XI. Be it enacted, That the secretary, immediately after his appointment, or as soon thereafter as conveniently may be, shall give bond, in the penalty of five hundred pounds current money aforesaid, with sufficient security, for the faithful execution of the trust reposed in him, and shall attend the meetings of the said corporation, and of the governor and directors, and take the following oath before some justice of the peace, "that he will well and faithfully execute the office of secretary to the corporation of the proprietors of the Susquehanna canal, and to the governor and directors thereof," and keep a fair record of all their proceedings, which he shall lay before the corporation at each meeting, with an account of all expenditures; and that the treasurer shall give bond, in the penalty of four thousand pounds current money, to discharge the trust committed to him by the said corporation.

Secretary to give bond,
&c.

XII. Be it enacted, That the said corporation shall meet once in every three months for the first year, and oftener if it shall be necessary, at all which meetings the governor for the time being shall preside; and all laws and regulations shall be determined by a majority of votes; and the holder or holders of each share shall have only one vote, which may be given by proxy, authorised by writing, signed and sealed by the holder or holders of such share, and lodged with the secretary previous to the receiving the vote.

Corporation
to meet once
in 3 months,
&c.

XIII. Be it enacted, That the persons who shall hereafter become subscribers to make up the sum of twenty thousand pounds current money as aforesaid, shall become members of the said corporation, and shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges as if they had originally subscribed and had been named in this act.

Future subscribers to become members, &c.

XIV. Be it enacted, That where there shall not appear property for the payment of the stipulated quota of any subscriber, in the county within the state where the party resides, that then and in that case the party shall forfeit his share, or part of a share, in the said company, if he neglects payment one month after it becomes due; and in case the subscriber, or his assignee, shall reside out of this state, he shall forfeit his whole share, either on subscription or assignment, and every right, title and authority, derived under this act, if he shall neglect or refuse to pay to the governor, or director of the company, such share so due as aforesaid.

In what cases shares are forfeited, &c.