

C H A P.
XXXIV.

real estate, for the payment of his debts, hath also departed this life, by reason whereof, the executors of the said Jonathan Plowman, if living, and the administrator under the act of assembly aforesaid, are not empowered to make sale of any part of the real estate of the testator for payment of his debts, on account of the death of the said Walter Tolley; and it appearing to this general assembly reasonable and just, that the intention of the said Jonathan Plowman, respecting the payment of his debts, should be carried into effect, and that a trustee should be appointed in the room of the said Walter Tolley: Therefore,

Power vested
in A. Buchanan, &c.

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all and every power and authority delegated to Walter Tolley, junior, in and by the last will and testament of the said Jonathan Plowman, relating to his real estate, be, and is hereby declared to be, vested in Andrew Buchanan, Esquire, of Baltimore county; and all and every act or acts, thing or things, lawfully to be done by the said Walter Tolley when living, under and in virtue of the said will, shall and may lawfully be done by the said Andrew Buchanan, Esquire, fully and effectually, to all intents and purposes, as if he had been specially nominated and appointed thereto by the said last will and testament of said Jonathan Plowman.

C H A P. XXXV.

An A C T for the relief of Micajah Mitchell.

Preamble.

WHEREAS Micajah Mitchell, of Harford county, by his humble petition to this general assembly hath set forth, that at the time limited by law, to take, repeat, and subscribe, the oath of fidelity to this state, he was a minor, and under the immediate influence of his father, whom he conceived himself bound to obey, and, not through principles inimical to the independence of his native country, did neglect taking the same, notwithstanding immediately on the death of his said father (who died previous to the late peace taking place) he embraced the earliest opportunity of taking the oath aforesaid: And whereas this general assembly hath taken the same into consideration, and think it reasonable that the said petitioner should be relieved from all the penalties incurred thereby:

M. Mitchell
relieved, &c.

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That if the above mentioned petitioner shall, on or before the first day of April next, take, repeat, and subscribe, the oath or affirmation (as the case may be) of fidelity and support to this state required by the act for the better security of the government, before some justice of the peace of his county, and deliver a certificate thereof to the clerk of such county, who shall and he is hereby required to enrol the name of such person in his book kept for that purpose, he shall from thenceforth be relieved from all the pains, penalties, and disabilities, whatever, imposed by the aforesaid act, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

C H A P. XXXVI.

An A C T for the sale of a lot of ground in Baltimore-town,
the property of Thomas Walley.

Preamble.

WHEREAS Mary Walley, by her petition to this general assembly did set forth, that her husband Zedekiah Walley, (who commanded one of the galleys of this state, and was killed in the year seventeen hundred and eighty-two, gallantly fighting in the service of the state) left one only son named Thomas, whom the legislature,