CHAP. L.

An ACT for the relief of Peregrine Fitzhugh and Elizabeth his wife.

WHEREAS Peregrine Fitzhugh and Elizabeth his wife, of Anne Arundel county, have by their joint memorial to this general assembly set forth, that the said Peregrine and Elizabeth his wife are seised in fee simple of a tract of land lying in Washington county in this state, given the said Elizabeth, at the time of her marriage with the said Peregrine Fitzhugh, by her father Samuel Chew, of said Anne-Arundel county, and that the said Peregrine Fitzhugh, with the approbation, advice and consent, of the said Samuel Chew, father as aforesaid to his said wife Elizabeth, has purchased a tract of land more conveniently situated, and being desirous to sell the said tract of land in Washington county, and apply the money arising from said sale to the discharge of the purchase sum of the tract of land lately bought by the said Peregrine as aforesaid, but from his said wife Elizabeth being under age, a sufficient deed of conveyance cannot be executed by the said Elizabeth, so as to vest an absolute right in any one who may be disposed to purchase the same: And whereas the prayer of said Peregrine and Elizabeth his wife appearing reasonable to this general assembly, and all parties being desirous to sell the said lands in Washington county, and apply the money arising from said sale to the purpose aforesaid, and this assembly being willing to grant relief in the premises aforesaid: Therefore,

Preamble

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said Elizabeth Fitzhugh and Peregrine Fitzhugh may, and it shall be lawful for them, jointly, to execute any instrument of writing for the said lands in Washington county, which she the said Elizabeth might or could do were she of full and lawful age to do the same, and the said instrument thus executed, or any instrument of writing hereafter to be executed, by the said Elizabeth Fitzhugh and Peregrine Fitzhugh, for the conveyance of the said lands in Washington county, shall be good and effectual in law, any thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

Instrument of writing may be executed, &c.

CHAP. LI.

A bill, entitled, An ACT to enable Sarah Parran to dispose of certain lands for the purpose therein mentioned.

WHEREAS Sarah Parran, by her petition to this assembly hath set forth, that her husband Richard Parran, late of Calvert county, deceased, died seised of two tracts of land, one lying in Calvert county and one in Charles county, and personal estate to a considerable amount; that the said Richard Parran, at the time of his
