

RESOLUTIONS assented to congress on loan-office certificates, to accept this state for payment on the terms therein mentioned.

RESOLVED, That the intendant of the revenue be authorized and directed to pay the subscribers for the bills of credit issued in 1781 (vulgarly called red money) the principal and interest due them, unless they will take certificates for the principal at six per cent interest, in which case certificates may issue to them as to other creditors of the public.

RESOLVED, That three thousand three hundred and thirty-three and one third dollars be appropriated to defray one half of the expence of examining, surveying, cutting, clearing, improving, and keeping in repair, a proposed road from the waters of Patowmack river to the river Cheat, and, if necessary, to the Monongahela; and that the intendant of the revenue be authorized and directed to pay the said money to the use aforesaid; and that Mr. Francis Deakins be appointed to join and act with such person or persons as may be nominated by the commonwealth of Virginia to execute this trust, and that the money aforesaid be subject to their order; and if the said Francis Deakins shall decline to act, that his excellency the governor be authorized and requested to appoint another in his place.

RESOLVED, That his excellency the governor be requested to write to the legislature of Pennsylvania, to request permission to lay out and improve a road through such part of that state as may be necessary, in the best and most proper direction from fort Cumberland to the navigable part of the Youghogany.

WHEREAS Thomas Hyde, of the city of Annapolis, hath set forth, by his petition to this general assembly, that he obtained out of the land-office a warrant of resurvey on a lot of land in the city of Annapolis, situated on one of the branches of a creek running into the said city, with a view to secure a small quantity of ground made by him, by filling in the marshy part of the head of the said branch, on which he had erected a small building for the use of a mill-house to a tan-yard, which was contiguous to the said ground; that he had a resurvey made in virtue of the said warrant, and a certificate thereof returned to the land-office, on which he paid the composition money and the value of the house above mentioned, as ascertained by the surveyor; that upon application for patent he was informed, that by an act passed in April session, subsequent to the date of his warrant aforesaid, all lands heretofore resurveyed for the use of the proprietor were reserved to such uses and purposes as the general assembly should hereafter direct, in which it is conceived a former resurvey on the city of Annapolis is included, though he apprehends not within the intention of the legislature; and praying that a resolution might pass, directing the register of the land-office to issue patent on his certificate of resurvey; and it appearing to this general assembly, that the facts therein stated are true: Therefore, RESOLVED, That the register of the land-office be, and he is hereby directed to make out a patent on the resurvey aforesaid in the usual manner, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that Messieurs Mombos and Latel, of Baltimore-town, had a quantity of wines consigned them in the year seventeen hundred and eighty three, which were damaged, the duties whereof amounted to four hundred and seventy-seven pounds ten shillings, for which they bonded to the naval officer of Baltimore; that the actual sales of said wines were two hundred and seventy-nine pounds one shilling; that there was no law at that time to remedy such inconveniences; and it appearing reasonable to grant relief in the premises: Therefore, RESOLVED, That the naval officer aforesaid be directed to remit and give up so much of the said bond as exceeds the sales aforesaid, and upon the said Mombos and Latel paying the balance, that the said bond be cancelled.

WHEREAS