paid by the party defiring fuch view fix fhillings and eight-pence current money each, as aforefaid; and when any tobacco fhall be offered as aforefaid by any infpector, and refufed, the faid infpector fhall not be at liberty to offer, nor the perfon demanding the fame to receive, any tobacco in lieu thereof, before fuch tobacco firft offered fhall have been viewed as herein before directed, but the perfon refufing fhall immediately mark the fame; and if any infpector fhall tender any tobacco in lieu of the tobacco fo refufed, before the fame fhall have been viewed as aforefaid, or fhall not produce the fame tobacco fo refufed to the faid viewers, in either cafe it fhall be taken for a conviction that the tobacco firft tendered was unmerchantable, and the faid infpector fhall forfeit and pay thirty pounds current money for every offence; and if the perfon who fhall refufe any hogfhead of tobacco as aforefaid fhall accept and receive another hogfhead of tobacco in lieu of that refufed, before fuch hogfhead fo refufed fhall be viewed as aforefaid, he fhall forfeit and pay thirty pounds current money for every hogfhead.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That where two infpectors in the fame infpection cannot agree to pafs any hogfhead of tobacco, and a review fhall be required, and fuch hogfhead, or any part thereof, fhall be by fuch reviewers adjudged unmerchantable, and burnt agreeably to the directions of this act, that in fuch cafe the infpector who was againft firft paffing fuch tobacco, fhall not be burthened with making fatisfaction for the fame, or any part thereof, but in fuch cafe, the infpector who would have paffed the fame, fhall make fatisfaction for the whole; and where any tobacco fhall on review be adjudged unmerchantable, the infpector or infpectors who paffed fuch tobacco, fhall immediately pay the owner one other hogfhead of the fame weight and quality, and thereupon the note for the tobacco adjudged unmerchantable as aforefaid, fhall be delivered up to the infpector or infpectors, to be deftroyed, and if the infpector or infpectors fhall refufe or neglect, he or they fhall be anfwerable for the full value of the tobacco, at the price thereof at the time, and the infpector or infpectors, or his or their bonds, with his or their fureties, may be fued, at the election of the party; and every infpector fhall deliver the identical hogfhead of tobacco expreffed in the note, and no other, to the perfon holding the fame, under the penalty of five pounds current money; and no perfon fhall receive any other hogfhead of tobacco than the very hogfhead for which the note is given, in lieu of the fame, under the penalty of five pounds current money, except only in the cafe where the tobacco for which the note is given fhall, on review, be adjudged unmerchantable.

Where two infpectors difagree, he who was againft paffing the tobacco not to make fatisfaction, &c.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That no infpector or infpectors fhall hereafter, on any pretence, give out any note for tobacco, unlefs he or they fhall have actually received and paffed the full quantity of tobacco for which fuch note fhall be given, under the penalty of thirty pounds current money for every fuch offence.

Infpectors not to give notes unlefs the tobacco be received, &c.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That the infpector or infpectors fhall carefully enter in a book to be provided and kept for that purpofe alone, every hogfhead of tobacco viewed, paffed, ftamped and branded, by him or them, and the quality thereof, and the maker's mark, and warehoufe and number, with the grofs, tare and net weight, of all fuch tobacco, and in what veffel the fame fhall be laden, and fhall fend with every load of tobacco a manifeft thereof, containing the numbers, grofs, tare and net weight, and marks, of every hogfhead of tobacco, to be delivered to the mafter of the veffel in which the fame fhall be put on board for exportation, and if the tobacco delivered is intended to be put on board feveral veffels, then the infpector or infpectors fhall deliver feparate manifefts

And fhall enter every hogfhead in a book, &c.