

Passed January 20. An ACT to authorise Baltimore county court to grant a new trial in the case therein mentioned.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that Sarah Hall, wife of Philip Hall, was indicted at Baltimore county May court, seventeen hundred and eighty-four, for a forcible entry on a lot of ground in Baltimore-town, in the possession of a certain Daniel Lamott, and that the said Sarah was found guilty on the said indictment at Baltimore January court, seventeen hundred and eighty-six, and in consequence of such conviction, incurred very heavy costs, for which she is now a prisoner: And whereas four of the justices of the said court have certified, that they attended as justices of the said court at the trial of the said Sarah on the said indictment, and that in their opinion the said Sarah was aggrieved by the verdict given on the said indictment, and that on motion for a new trial, the said justices would have granted the same without costs, if they had conceived they had authority to grant a new trial on the said indictment;

Justices to set aside the verdict, &c.

II. Be it enacted, by the general assembly of Maryland, That the justices of the said county court be authorised to set aside the verdict given on the said indictment against the said Sarah Hall, and to grant a new trial without costs of the former trial, if they think justice requires that a new trial should be had on the said indictment, provided application be made to the said court for such new trial at the next county court to be held for the said county; and the costs already incurred, or to be incurred, on such new trial, shall depend on the event of such second trial.
