

from to the purpose, and in the manner therein expressed, as to the money to be assessed &c. &c.

A Supplement to an act, entitled, An Act to open and establish a public road in Dorchester county.

Passed May 15. Preamble.

WHEREAS an act of assembly passed at November session last, empowering Michael Hall, Esquire, of Dorchester county, to open a road from the main road that leads from New Market to the town of Vienna, to his mill, and from his mill to the road that leads from Cambridge to the town of Vienna, and whereas Joseph Richardson, Willis Newton and James Steele, were appointed commissioners for the purpose of laying out said road, and to ascertain the damages done any person or persons by the said road passing through their lands, and the aforesaid Joseph Richardson and Willis Newton did before the road aforesaid was laid out

Be it enacted, by the general assembly of Maryland, That John Goff and Edward Thompson, are hereby appointed commissioners in the place of Joseph Richardson and Willis Newton, and shall have the same powers to act in the business aforesaid, as the aforesaid Joseph Richardson and Willis Newton, were vested with under the original act.

Commissioners appointed, &c.

An ACT to empower William Berry Warman, a minor, administrator with the will annexed, and residuary legatee of William Berry, deceased, to sell the lands therein mentioned, and to apply the money arising therefrom.

Passed May 15.

WHEREAS William Berry Warman, a minor, administrator with the will annexed, and residuary legatee of William Berry, late of Prince-George's county, deceased, by his petition to this general assembly, hath set forth, that he is seized of three tracts or parcels of land lying in Prince-George's county aforesaid, to wit, Berry's Enclosure, containing three hundred and forty seven acres, Oxen Hill, containing seventy acres, and Holly Spring, containing fifty acres, devised to him by the said William Berry, which lands, not being settled, are rather a burthen to him, than the estate of the said William Berry is much involved by reason of debts and legacies, which the personal estate is scarcely sufficient to discharge, and prayed that an act might be made, enabling him to sell and convey the aforesaid lands, and the money arising therefrom to apply towards the payment of the debts and legacies aforesaid, so that he may be able to have some part of the personal estate for his own use, which being thought reasonable, Preamble.

Be it enacted, by the general assembly of Maryland, That the said William Berry Warman, be, and he is hereby empowered and enabled, to sell and dispose of the aforesaid lands, lying in Prince-George's county aforesaid, to wit, Berry's Enclosure, Oxen Hill and Holly Spring, which were devised to him by the said William Berry, and the same, when sold, to make over and convey to the purchaser or purchasers in fee-simple, by good and sufficient deed or deeds, and the money arising from such sale to apply and appropriate to the payment and discharge of the said debts due from the estate of the said William Berry, and the residuary legacies by his last will and testament bequeathed, provided nevertheless, that the said William Berry Warman, before such sale as aforesaid, enter into bond with such security as shall be approved by the orphans court of Prince-George's county, with condition, to apply and appropriate to such part of the money arising from such sale as may be necessary to pay and discharge the said debts due from the estate of the said William Berry, and the residuary legacies by his last will and testament bequeathed.

W. B. Warman empowered to sell lands, &c.