An ACT for the benefit of Elizabeth Peacock, of Talbot county.

Passed December 22.

WHEREAS by act of assembly, passed at April session, seventeen hundred and eighty-seven, it was enacted, that the property formerly belonging to Robert Peacock be restored to him, and the bond given by William Perry, to secure the payment of the purchase money for the said property, was declared to be null and void, provided that the said Robert Peacock should pay all expences attending the sale of the said property: And whereas it is represented, that the said Robert Peacock hath departed this life without issue, leaving the aforesaid Elizabeth his widow, of whom the said Robert Peacock acquired a right and title to the said property by marriage: And whereas the said Robert in his lifetime did neglect to comply with the terms of the said act; and this general assembly being desirous to extend their bounty to the widow of the said Robert,

Preamble.

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the property aforesaid be and is hereby vested in the said Elizabeth Peacock, and her heirs, forever, and the bond given by the said William Perry is hereby declared null and void, provided that the said Elizabeth Peacock pay all expences, if any, attending the sale of said property; any law to the contrary notwithstanding.
