

C H A P. LXXXVIII.

An ACT for the payment of the journal of accounts.

Passed December 30.
Preamble.

WHEREAS it appears by the journal of accounts of this session, that there is now due from this state the sum of eight thousand one hundred and fifty-three pounds ten shillings and eight-pence current money;

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the treasurer of the western shore shall and he is hereby authorized and required to pay the several persons, their executors, administrators, assigns or orders, or to such of them as shall offer to receive the same, the several sums of current money allowed to them respectively, as they appear to be settled and ascertained by the said journal of accounts, out of any money now in the treasury, or that shall come into the treasury, subject to the appropriation of the general assembly.

Treasurer to pay claims, &c.

C H A P. LXXXIX.

A Supplement to the act, entitled, An act for erecting a bridge over Patowmack river.

Passed December 30.

BE it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Samuel Blodgett, Robert Peter, William Deakins, junior, James M. Lingan and Uriah Forrest, be authorized and directed to open, or cause to be opened, books for receiving and entering subscriptions to the amount of four hundred shares, instead of one hundred and fifty shares, as authorized and directed by the act to which this is a supplement.

Books to be opened, &c.

C H A P. XC.

A Supplement to the act, entitled, An act to appoint an agent for the year seventeen hundred and ninety-two, and for other purposes.

Passed December 30.

BE it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the agent appointed by or in virtue of the act of the present session of assembly to which this is a supplement, shall have full power and authority to compound with discoverers of confiscated British property upon the terms and conditions prescribed in the act to empower the governor and council to compound with discoverers of British property, who heretofore made application concerning the same, and for other purposes, passed at November session, seventeen hundred and eighty-eight, and to dispose of such property, and take bonds for the purchase money, in the same manner as directed by the act to which this is a supplement, as to confiscated British property unsold, and on the same credit and terms.

Agent to compound, &c.

II. And be it enacted, That the said agent shall immediately call on such discoverers of confiscated British property, and if such applicants shall not, on or before first day of June next, make known to the said agent the title of the state to the property discovered, the said agent shall, immediately thereafter, proceed to ascertain the state's right, and dispose of the same as aforesaid, without making such discoverers, who refuse or neglect to comply with this notice, any compensation.

And call on discoverers, &c.

RESOLUTIONS assented to November Session, 1791.

RESOLVED, That the auditor-general be and he is hereby authorized and directed to examine the musters of the Maryland line, and other documents that may be produced, and liquidate the depreciation on the pay of James Carvin, late a soldier in the fourth Maryland regiment, and grant him, or his legal representative or representatives, a certificate for what may appear to be justly due.

WHEREAS it appears to the general assembly, that Henry C. Baker, late a lieutenant in the third Maryland regiment, is deprived of the use of his limbs, and thereby rendered incapable of maintaining himself, his wife and children; and it also appearing that he probably derived the disorder, under which he now labours, from being exposed in the service of his country, during several campaigns in South-Carolina; therefore, RESOLVED, That his excellency the governor of Maryland, for the time being, be
