An ACT further extending the exclusive privilege granted to Gabriel Peterfon Vanhorn and Robert Hodgson, by certain acts of this state, to keep and run stage carriages.

Preamble.

WHEREAS Gabriel Peterfon Vanhorn and Robert Hodgson, by their petition to this general assembly have set forth, that by reason of the late fatal contagion prevalent in Philadelphia, a suspension in the running of their stages, under their right heretofore granted them respectively, necessarily took place, in order effectually to prevent the disorder being introduced into Maryland, and praying an extension of said right: And whereas also the committee of health for the town of Baltimore, have, by their communication to this assembly, recommended the said Gabriel Peterfon Vanhorn to the favour of this house, for his cheerful and ready compliance with the measures adopted by them as far as he was interested, and have expressed their strong approbation of the propriety of the conduct observed by him in his peculiar situation, and have also recognised the sacrifice he made for the general welfare; and it appearing to this legislature that, under the peculiar circumstances existing in the present case, that it is reasonable to grant the prayer of the petitioners; therefore,

Exclusive pri-
