A Supplement to an act, entitled, An act respecting the continuance of civil suits in the general and county courts.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by the aforesaid act, entitled, An act respecting the continuance of civil suits in the general and county courts, among other things it is enacted, that in any case where commissions shall issue for taking the depositions of witnesses residing out of this state, the said courts respectively shall have a discretionary power to continue such cause, not exceeding four courts after the usual time of continuance limited by law: And whereas the present state of Europe and the West-India islands present great obstacles to the safe and speedy transmission and return of such commissions, as well as to their execution; therefore,

continued in certain cases.

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in all cases where commissions have been or shall be hereafter issued to obtain testimony in any cause, which commission is or shall be issued to parts without the United States of America, the cause on which such commission is or shall be issued may be continued for want of the return of such commission as long as the court, under all circumstances, shall in their discretion think reasonable, any thing in the aforesaid act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Duration.

III. This act to continue and remain in force for three years, and to the end of the next session of the general assembly which shall happen thereafter.
