An ACT to prevent the going at large of swine within five miles of the city of Baltimore, in Baltimore county.

Passed January 20.

BE it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, no swine shall be suffered to go at large within five miles of the city of Baltimore, and if any person shall find on his land, or on any land in his possession, lying within five miles of the said city, any swine, it shall and may be lawful for him any such swine to kill or impound, or cause to be killed or impounded.

No swine to go at large.

II. And be it enacted, That if any person shall be sued for killing or impounding any swine found upon his land, or on any land in his possession, the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence; provided, that nothing in this act shall be construed to extend to or prevent any swine going at large in Anne-Arundel county.

Persons sued may plead, &c.
