An ACT to authorise the building a record-office in Kent county.

Passed January
20.

WHEREAS by an act of assembly passed at November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-six, the justices of the levy court of Kent county were authorised and directed to levy a sum of money on the inhabitants of said county for the purpose of making such repairs, additions, alterations and improvements, to the court-house, as might be thought necessary for the safe keeping and securing the public records of said county: And whereas it is represented to this general assembly, that it may be more convenient and less expensive to build an entire new office for that purpose;

Preamble.

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Messieurs John Nicholson, Thomas Worrell and James Houston, or any two of them, may and they are hereby authorised and directed to superintend the building an office in Chester-town, in Kent county, as a depository for the records of the said county, and that they be authorised to attach the same to the present court-house of said county, or to build the same separate therefrom, as they may think most for the benefit of the said county, and to contract for materials and agree with workmen to complete the same.

J. Nicholson,
&c. to superintend, &c.

III. And be it enacted, That all monies ordered to be levied as aforesaid by the above recited act shall be paid into the hands of the persons above mentioned, or any two of them, to be by them applied agreeably to the directions of this act.

Monies to be paid, &c.
