

C H A R T
XVI.

therein above the age of twenty-one years, and of all the male slaves above the age of years; and the said overseers shall justly and impartially call for and require the labour of singular the persons aforesaid, alternately, and in such convenient numbers and classes as the burthen of their service equally upon all; provided nevertheless, that the labour of said persons shall not be called forth for the purposes of this act during the season of harvest, in such manner as to take more than the number of labourers belonging to one family at same time.

X. AND BE IT ENACTED, That as often as the said overseers shall judge it necessary to call the said inhabitants for their labour in and upon the said roads, they shall summon, or cause summoned, the number and class which they shall have previously arranged, having had ard to the quantity and quality of work necessary to be done upon the said roads, giving each person, and the master, mistress, or overseer of each servant or slave, is to be summoned, two notice at the least of the time and place appointed for their labour, except in such extraorinary cases which may require a shorter notice, and every person so summoned shall be obliged attend in person, or to provide a sufficient substitute; and if any person, being so summoned, neglect or refuse to attend, or to provide a sufficient substitute, he shall forfeit and pay the of one dollar for every offence; and if any person shall attend, and not perform the reason-labour required of him by the overseer of the road, according to his ability, he shall be judged a defaulter, and shall incur the same penalty as if he had neglected to attend; and in the master, mistress or overseer, of any servant or slave, upon being notified as aforesaid, refuse or neglect to send such servant or slave, or upon sending, such servant or slave shall to perform his reasonable labour as aforesaid, such master, mistress or overseer, shall for-at and pay the sum of one dollar for every servant or slave so refused to be sent, or when sent refusing to work as aforesaid.

Summon the class arranged,
&c.

XI. AND BE IT ENACTED, That it shall be the duty of the said overseers to keep a true and proper list of all and every person or defaulter, who, being summoned as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to attend at the times and places appointed as aforesaid, or if attending, shall not perform his reasonable labour, and of every master, mistress or overseer of servants and slaves, who shall incur the penalty aforesaid; and the said overseers of roads shall, once in every three months, call upon each and every of the said persons, and demand the payment of all and singular the sums of money by them, or any of them, so forfeited, and on refusal or neglect to pay the same, the said overseers shall proceed to recover the same before a single magistrate, by due course of law; and the said overseers shall, every six months, render their accounts of all fines and forfeitures received by them in virtue of this act to the justices of the levy court, upon oath, or affirmation, and pay the amount thereof in such manner as the said justices shall order and appoint.

And keep a list of all defaulters, &c.

XII. AND BE IT ENACTED, That if any of the overseers so to be appointed shall refuse to act, remove, become disqualified, or die, it shall and may be lawful for any two of the neighbouring justices to supply every vacancy so happening, by the appointment of another person, and they shall certify every such appointment, under their hands, to the clerk of the county, who shall record the same, and within five days thereafter shall issue a warrant to the person so appointed, and deliver the same to the sheriff, to be served upon the party as herein before directed.

How vacancies are to be filled.

XIII. AND BE IT ENACTED, That every overseer so to be appointed by virtue of this act shall respectively be allowed a sum, not exceeding eight dollars by the year, for summoning, directing and superintending, the labourers employed upon the said roads, which allowance shall be paid them by the justices of the levy court out of the fines and forfeitures imposed and levied by this act, and if found to be insufficient for this purpose at the expiration of every year, the deficiency shall be assessed and levied upon the county in the same manner as other public charges.

Overseer's allowance.

XIV. AND BE IT ENACTED, That any of the justices of the peace of the said county, who, on his own views, or on the information, oath or affirmation, of one or more credible witnesses, shall discover or be satisfied that any bridge, road or causeway, is out of repair, from the neglect of duty of the overseer within whose limits the same shall be, except in time of wheat harvest, shall issue his warrant, in the name of the state, against such overseer, and if judgment shall be rendered against him for the fine or forfeiture imposed by this act, the same shall be certified by the justice rendering the same to the clerk of the said county, who shall thereupon issue process of execution, directed to the sheriff, for the recovery thereof, and the same shall be accounted and paid to the order of the levy court; provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall prevent any of the said overseers offending against the provisions of this act from being presented by the grand jury for any neglect of duty not before punished by any of the justices of the peace as aforesaid.

Justice may issue his warrant
in certain cases,
&c.

XV. AND, whereas it may be proper and necessary to vest a competent power in the justices of the levy court to turn, alter, streighten or lay out, roads in the county aforesaid, where the proprietors of the lands through which the roads which may be intended to be so turned or altered may pass are willing and capable of consenting to applications of this nature; therefore, BE IT ENACTED, That upon the application in writing from all the proprietors of the lands through which any public road may pass, or be prayed to pass, petitioning for the turning, altering, streightening or laying out a public road, it shall and may be lawful for the justices of the levy court, upon being satisfied that the granting of such petition will be of public convenience, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to direct the surveyor of the said county to lay out such road, agreeably to the prayer of such petition, or in such other manner they shall think most expedient, not exceeding twenty feet in breadth, without the consent of said proprietors, and to make return of such location with all convenient speed; and after such

On application road may be turned, &c.