VI.

How a vacancy is to be filled.

IV. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That if in the recess of the levy court any constable of said town so appointed should be desirous of resigning his appointment, or in case of death, refusal or neglect to qualify, any two justices of the county may forthwith appoint another proper person to fill such vacancy, who, upon their certificate of such appointment to him delivered, shall proceed to act in the same manner as if appointed by the levy court.

C H A P . VII.

Passed 3d of Jan. 1800.

An ACT to empower the justices of the levy court of Charles county to assess and levy annually a sum of money for the purpose therein mentioned.

Preamble.

WHEREAS John Monro, senior, of Charles county, by his petition to this general assembly hath set forth, that his son John Monro, junior, is an idiot, and thereby is rendered unable to support himself, and that he, from indigent circumstances, and having a large family, is entirely unable to contribute in any degree to his maintenance, and praying that some provision may be made for the support of his said son; and the facts appearing to this general assembly to be true,

Justices to levy money, &c.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the justices of the levy court of Charles county, at their levy court, shall have full power and authority, and they are hereby directed and required, annually to assess, so long as they shall see cause, on the assessable property of said county, a sum not exceeding thirty dollars for any one year; which said sum, so levied and assessed, shall be collected as other county charges are, and paid to the said John Monro, senior, or such other person as they the said court shall appoint, for the use, support and maintenance, of the said John Monro, junior.

C H A P . VIII.

Passed 3d of Jan. 1800.

An ACT to authorise and empower the levy court of Montgomery county to assess and levy annually a sum of money for the support of Ruth Glaze.

Preamble.

WHEREAS Ruth Glaze, of Montgomery county, by her petition to this general assembly hath set forth, that she has for ten years past been confined to her bed, and has hitherto been maintained by her only son, who has done the same by teaching school, but who is at present rendered unable to continue that support, by a white swelling in one of his knees; therefore,

Justices to levy money, &c.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the justices of the levy court of Montgomery county shall be and they are hereby authorized and empowered, at their levy court annually, so long as they shall see cause, to assess and levy on the assessable property of said county a sum of money, not exceeding forty dollars, for the support and maintenance of the said Ruth Glaze, and that the same be collected and paid annually by the collector of the county tax for Montgomery county to such person as the levy court of said county may direct.

C H A P . IX.

Passed 3d of Jan. 1800.

An ACT to revive and aid the proceedings of the orphans court of Calvert county.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that the orphans court of Calvert county stood adjourned until Tuesday the twenty-ninth day of October, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, and that no one of the justices of said court attended to call the same according to adjournment as aforesaid, whereby all process and proceedings in the said court were discontinued; for remedy whereof,

Judgments, &c. revived, &c.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all the judgments, rules, entries, acts, process and proceedings, depending in the said court on the day aforesaid, shall be and the same are hereby revived, and shall be in the same state and condition, to all intents and purposes, as the same would have been in if the said court had met on the said twenty-ninth day of October, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, and the said judgments, rules, entries, acts, process and proceedings, had been duly continued by regular and lawful adjournments from time to time.
