An ACT to revive the proceedings of the orphans court of Harford county.

Passed 3d of
Jan. 1800.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that the orphans court of said county stood adjourned to the second Tuesday of February last, and that the said court was not called agreeably to the adjournment aforesaid, owing to the justices of the said court, and the register of wills for said county, not having knowledge of the continuance of the act of assembly, entitled, An additional supplementary act to the act, entitled, An act to establish orphans courts in the several counties in this state, passed at November session, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one, whereby all the process and proceedings of the said court were discontinued; for remedy whereof,

Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all the rules, judgments, entries, acts, process and proceedings, depending in the said court on the second Tuesday of February aforesaid, shall be and the same are hereby revived, and shall be in the same state and condition, to all intents and purposes, as the same would have been in if the said court had met on the second Tuesday of February last, and the said rules, judgments, process and proceedings, had been duly continued by regular and lawful adjournments from time to time.

C H A P. XI.

An ACT to correct a mistake in an act, entitled, An act for the relief of Andrew Buchanan, and to confirm all proceedings had, or hereafter to be had, under said act and a certain deed of trust therein referred to.

Passed 3d of
Jan. 1800.

WHEREAS by an act passed at the last session of assembly, entitled, An act for the relief of Andrew Buchanan, it is stated that the said Andrew Buchanan did, by a certain deed in writing, on the twenty-first day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, convey unto John Hoskins Stone and Walter Dorsey, in trust, all his property, real, personal and mixed, for the benefit of such of his creditors as might thereafter, within a certain limited time, sign the said deed: And whereas it appears that the said deed bore date on the twenty-first day of July, seventeen hundred and ninety-eight, instead of the date mentioned in said act; wherefore,

Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said act shall fully and effectually, to all intents and purposes, operate to afford the relief to the said Andrew Buchanan contemplated by said act, notwithstanding the afore-mentioned mistake in the date of the said deed; and that all proceedings had, or hereafter to be had, by the trustees aforesaid, under the said deed of trust, bearing date on the twenty-first day of July, seventeen hundred and ninety-eight, shall be valid to all intents and purposes, according to the real meaning and intention of said act, and that neither the person nor property of the said Andrew Buchanan since acquired, except by descent, or in his own right by devise, bequest, or in a course of distribution, shall be liable to be affected by any legal process whatever for or on account of the mistake in the date of the said deed in said act mentioned.
