Preamble.

C H A P. XLIX.

A Supplement to an act, entitled, An act to direct descents.

WHEREAS by an act of the general assembly, passed at November session, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, entitled, An act to direct descents, the county courts, or the chancellor, as the case may be, are authorized to appoint commissioners, either to divide, or eventually to make sale in certain cases, of the lands and real estates of persons dying intestate, and no provision appears to have been made for the payment of the expences of the said commissioners, or the persons employed by them to survey and lay off the said lands when it may be deemed necessary: And whereas it is expedient and proper that deeds of conveyance should be executed and acknowledged to purchasers in those cases wherein it becomes necessary for the commissioners to make sale of the intestates estates, as manifesting the best evidence of their title in future times;

Chancellor, &c. may make allowance to commissioners, &c.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the chancellor, or the respective county courts, as the case may be, shall be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to allow to each commissioner, for every day he shall necessarily attend in the execution of such commission, a sum not exceeding two dollars per day, and to the surveyor employed by them, (when necessary,) a sum not exceeding four dollars per day for himself and chain-carriers, and such other expences as they may deem reasonable and proper; all which allowances and expences, together with the fees on the issuing and return of such commission, shall be paid by the representative or representatives, as the case may be, applying for the commission, when the lands or estate are divided, or by the representative making his or her election to take the estate pursuant to the original act, and such representative or representatives, as the case may be, may charge the other representatives with their re-
