

to be administered by said justice, shall inquire who are the owner or owners of the land over which the road so laid out and ratified shall pass, and whatever damages such owner or owners will actually suffer from the passage of such road over the said land, the said jury taking into consideration all conveniencies and inconveniencies, advantages and disadvantages, if any, arising from the opening and improving said road; and such sheriff shall return the inquisition of the said jury, under their hands and seals, and attested by his official signature, to the next levy court to be held for the county; and the amount of damages therein expressed, if any, shall be paid by order of the said court out of the monies to be levied as is by law directed; provided, that the said road shall not be made to run through any building, enclosed yard, garden or orchard, without the consent of the owner or owners, nor shall any field in which grain, hemp, flax, tobacco, or other cultivated vegetables, are growing, be laid open until after the season for collecting and securing the crops growing in such fields.

C H A P.
XXII.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, That when the commissioners who may be appointed under this act shall have discharged all the duties required of them in virtue of such appointment, the levy court aforesaid shall order to be paid to the said commissioners respectively, out of the monies to be levied as by law directed, such reasonable compensation as to the said court shall seem meet, and the said commissioners respectively shall thereafter be discharged.

And order
compensation,
&c.

C H A P. XXIII.

An ACT further supplementary to the act, entitled, An act for the better administration of justice in the several counties of this state.

Passed 19th of
Dec. 1800.

WHEREAS by a supplement to the act to which this is further supplementary, it is provided, that the levy court of the several counties, at the time of laying their annual county assessment, shall ascertain the amount of the money collected in their county from the tax by the said act imposed, and after deducting the same from the whole amount of the allowance to the chief justice of their respective districts, shall levy such sum on their county as will make up the deficiency; and it is further provided, that the said money, when levied and collected, shall be paid into the treasuries of the respective shores, and upon failure of payment of the same by any collector, the treasurer is thereby directed, within the time therein limited after the same shall become due, to file an attested copy of such collector's bond in the general court, and that thereupon a capias ad respondendum may issue against said collector, and his securities, and judgment obtained the first term, without any imparlance: And whereas it is necessary that the treasurer of the respective shores, in order that the provisions of the said supplement may be the better carried into effect, should be furnished by the levy courts of the several counties with a certificate of the amount levied for the allowance of the district judge, and the transcript of the bond given by the collector, together with the amount put into each collector's hands, where there is more than one collector appointed in any county to collect the same; therefore,

Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy courts for the several counties of this state be and they are hereby directed, to transmit to the treasurer of their respective shores a certificate of the amount levied for the allowance to the chief justice of their district, and also a copy of the collector's bond appointed to collect the same, and also the amount put into each collector's hands for collection, where there are more than one collector appointed in any one county to collect the same.

Court to transmit a certificate, &c.

C H A P. XXIV.

An ACT for the relief of Thomas Beall, of Samuel, of Allegany county.

Passed 19th of
Dec. 1800.

WHEREAS Thomas Beall, of Samuel, purchased of Mountjoy Bailey, agent for the state of Maryland, two lots westward of Fort Cumberland, and has paid for the same, but from the want of a knowledge of the numbers of the said lots at the time of sale, the said agent could not designate them in the certificate of sale given to said Thomas Beall, of Samuel: And whereas it appears to this general assembly, that the said lots, according to the plot of the lands westward of Fort Cumberland, are distinguished by numbers 3473 and 3483, and in order that a legal title may be given the said Beall or his assigns,

Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the register of the land-office for the western shore be and he is hereby authorized and directed, to issue a patent for the said lots No.

Register to issue a patent,
&c.