An ACT to prevent the obstruction of the navigation of the western branch of Patuxent river.

Passed 31st of Dec. 1801.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that wears and hedges have of late been erected in and upon the western branch of Patuxent river, near the town of Upper-Marlborough, to the great injury of the navigation of said river, and of the trade of the said town; therefore,

Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all wears and hedges already made, or hereafter to be made, in the western branch of Patuxent river, below the bridge where the road leading from said town to the town of Queen-Anne crosses the said branch, shall be and are hereby deemed and declared nuisances, and may be by any person or persons pulled down, prostrated and abated as such.

Wears declared
nuisances, &c.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, That if any free person shall, at any time hereafter, put, place or make, or caused to be made, placed or directed, any wear or hedge in the said western branch of Patuxent river, below the said bridge, he, she or they, shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty-five dollars for every such offence, to be recovered before any justice of the peace, one half to be paid to the informer, or him or them that will sue for or prosecute to effect for the same, the other half to be paid to the said justice of the peace, to be by him annually accounted for and paid over to the order of the levy court of Prince-George's county.

Penalty for erecting them,
&c.

IV. AND BE IT ENACTED, That if any free person or persons shall fish, or cause to be fished, any such wear or hedge, he, she or they, shall for every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of fifteen dollars, to be recovered, accounted for and applied as aforesaid.

For fishing them, &c.

V. AND BE IT ENACTED, That if any slave or slaves shall, without the direction of his, her or their master, mistress or overseer, commit, or cause to be committed, any of the offences prohibited by this act, he, she or they shall, for every such offence, by the judgment of a single magistrate, be punished with whipping, not exceeding twenty lashes; provided always, that the master or mistress of such slave, or any other person, may redeem such slave, so convicted, from said punishment, by the payment of the fine that would by this act have been imposed in the case of a free person.

And on slaves
offending, &c.
