Passed 31st of
Dec. 1801.

WHEREAS it has been represented to this general assembly, by the petition of Edward Willet, of Prince-George's county, that a certain Rebecca Hall, of the county aforesaid, died seized of a tract of land lying in said county, and known by the name of Part of Good Luck, containing one hundred and eighty-eight acres; that a commission issued from the court of the said county, in conformity to the directions of the act of assembly, entitled, An act to direct descents; that under the aforesaid commission the said land was exposed to public sale, when a certain James A. Magruder became the ostensible purchaser, when in fact he was bidding for the aforesaid Edward Willet: And whereas it is also stated, that the aforesaid James A. Magruder was returned by the said commissioners to the court of the county aforesaid as the purchaser of the aforesaid land, and that the court were of opinion that they were not authorised to send back the said commission for correction, and that it remains filed in said court unconfirmed: And whereas it is further stated, that the representatives of the aforesaid Rebecca Hall are very numerous, and live, some in the commonwealth of Virginia, and others in different counties of this state; that other difficulties, arising from the non-age of some of said representatives and the right of dower in others, renders it impracticable to procure deeds from all the said representatives: And whereas it is proved by the affidavit of the said James A. Magruder, that he purchased the said land at the particular request of, and for the use of, the said Edward Willet, and that all payments for the said land have been made by the said Willet: And whereas the said Edward Willet hath prayed that an act may pass authorising the return of the said commissioners to be corrected; therefore,
