

C H A P.
C.

mark, a public road, from Gravelly hill, near the city of Baltimore, in a direction towards Liberty-town, to the Frederick county line at or near Philemon Barne's plantation, of the width of sixty-six feet, and in as streight a line as the nature of the ground will permit, running the said road by Randall's-town, and crossing the falls at Allen's mill, and running the said road by Little's tavern, and on the south side of the same, and the said commissioners are to consider not only the distance but the situation and goodness of the ground on which the said road is to pass.

II. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the commissioners appointed to examine, survey and lay out, the aforesaid road, after they shall lay out and mark the same, are hereby directed to return the courses and plots thereof to the clerk of Baltimore county court, which shall be by him recorded, and the said road so laid out shall for ever afterwards be held and adjudged in all courts of law or equity a public road and common highway.

Who shall return the courses, &c.

C H A P. CI.

An ACT to appoint a trustee to take care of that part of the Indian lands in Dorchester county which was laid off for, and occupied by, a certain Molley Mulberry, lately deceased.

Passed 31st of
Dec. 1801.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that a certain Molley Mulberry, one of the tribe of the Choptank Indians, had laid off for her by the commissioners appointed to contract for and purchase the lands commonly called the Choptank Indian Lands, in Dorchester county, the quantity of twenty acres of the aforesaid land; and the said Molley Mulberry having lately died, and leaving no descendant, therefore,

Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Henry Waggaman be and he is hereby appointed trustee for the purpose of taking care of the land heretofore laid off for the aforesaid Molley Mulberry, and the same to let out for the ensuing year, and until the legislature shall make further order therein, and to account for the rents and profits thereof in such manner as the legislature shall hereafter direct.

A trustee appointed, &c.

C H A 'P. CII.

An ACT to revive, continue and make permanent, the acts of assembly therein mentioned.

Passed 31st of
Dec. 1801.

BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the following acts of assembly, to wit, An act, entitled, An act for the destruction of crows in the several counties therein mentioned, passed at November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-six, be continued until the thirtieth day of October, eighteen hundred and five, and until the end of the next session of assembly which shall happen thereafter; that an act, entitled, An act to prevent the exportation of flour and salted provisions, not merchantable, from the port of Chester, passed at November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-seven, be continued until the thirtieth day of October, eighteen hundred and five, and until the end of the next session of assembly which may happen thereafter; that an act, entitled, A supplement to the act, entitled, An act for the establishment and regulation of levy courts in the several counties in this state, passed at November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-eight, be continued until the thirtieth day of October, eighteen hundred and five; and until the end of the next session of assembly which shall happen thereafter; that an act, entitled, A supplement to the act, entitled, An act to regulate and discipline the militia of this state, passed at November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-eight, be continued until the first day of October, eighteen hundred and two, and until the end of the next session of assembly which shall happen thereafter; that a supplement to the act respecting certificates of surveys made on the eastern shore, passed at November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-seven, that an act, entitled, An act respecting the poor-house of Baltimore county, passed at November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-nine, be continued until the thirtieth day of October, eighteen hundred and five, and until the end of the next session of assembly which shall happen thereafter, subject nevertheless to the operation of any act or acts of assembly which have passed since the said recited acts, or either of them.

Acts continued.

II. AND BE IT ENACTED, That an act, entitled, An act to prevent the exportation of flour not merchantable, and unsound salted provisions, from the port of Havre-de-Grace, passed at November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-six, be and the same is hereby enacted into a permanent law; that another act, entitled, An act to prevent the exportation of bread and flour

Acts made permanent.

not