ever issued to the said Ninian Beale for the land aforesaid, although there is reason to believe that a grant must have issued from the payments of the quit-rents, and the long, quiet and uninterrupted possession of the same in the said Ninian Beale, and those claiming under him: And whereas the said Sarah Russell Contee, Anne Lee, Eleanor Benson and Margaret Clarke, are apprehensive their title to the said land may be incomplete for want of a patent thereof, and have prayed this general assembly for relief in the premises; which being thought reasonable, therefore,

Chancellor to inquire, &c.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the chancellor be and he is hereby authorised and empowered to inquire into all the circumstances touching or concerning the said tract of land called Beale's Reserve, situate, lying and being in Prince-George's county, and originally taken up, or supposed to be taken up, by a certain Ninian Beale, in or about the year one thousand six hundred and ninety-two, and if, upon examination of all the facts and circumstances relative to said land, it shall appear satisfactory to the chancellor that the said land was taken up by the said Ninian Beale, and that in his opinion the said Ninian Beale was in equity and justice entitled to a grant for the same, and that the said land has been transmitted by regular conveyances to the aforesaid Richard Lee, from whom it has legally descended to the aforesaid Sarah Russell Contee, Anne Lee, Eleanor Benson and Margaret Clarke, that then and in such case the chancellor shall have full power and authority, if he shall deem it necessary, to cause the said land, or any tract or tracts contiguous thereto, to be surveyed by the surveyor of Prince-George's county, who in pursuance of the order of the chancellor shall return a plot of the same, and thereupon the chancellor may direct the register of the land-office for the western shore to issue a patent for the said land to the aforesaid Sarah Russell Contee, Anne Lee, Eleanor Benson and Margaret Clarke, their heirs and assigns, to have and to hold the same as tenants in common, who shall thereupon be considered the legal proprietors of the said land to all intents and purposes whatever; provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall in any manner affect the right of any person heretofore acquired in or to the said land, and that the patent, if any, to be issued in virtue of this act, shall only be taken and construed to transfer all the right, title and interest of the state, in and to the said land.
