

C H A P. XLI.

A Supplement to the act, entitled, An act to lay out a road from Aquila Tarman's tavern to Thomas Cockey's mill, and from the said mill to the road called The Deer Park Road.

Passed 8th of
January, 1803.

WHEREAS Samuel Wheeler, of Baltimore county, by his petition to this general assembly hath set forth, that the damages assessed by the commissioners named in the act to which this is a supplement, are not sufficient to indemnify him for the injury sustained by the location of the road mentioned in the said original act through his land, and praying that a jury may be summoned to ascertain the said damages upon oath; and the prayer of the said petition being reasonable, therefore,

Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That any justice of the peace in and for Baltimore county be and he is hereby authorised and empowered to issue his warrant, directed to the sheriff of said county, commanding him to summons a jury of twelve good and lawful freeholders, disinterested and unconnected, to be and appear before him, the said justice of the peace, on the premises, on a certain day in the said warrant expressed, which jury, upon their oath, to be administered by the said attending justice, shall inquire and determine what damages the said Samuel Wheeler hath sustained by reason of the said road running through and over his said land, taking into consideration the convenience and benefits, if any, and the disadvantages incurred, by the said Samuel Wheeler by occasion of the said location of said road, and the said damages, when so assessed as aforesaid by the inquest of the jury, under their hands and seals, shall be paid in the same manner, and by the same person, as is directed in the said original act, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Justice may issue warrant, &c.

C H A P. XLII.

An ACT for the relief of Patrick M'Gill, of Frederick county.

Passed 8th of
January, 1803.
Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of Patrick M'Gill, of Frederick county, that sometime in the year eighteen hundred an attachment was issued out of the county court of Frederick by a certain Peter Coblentz, senior, against Jacob Coblentz, and laid on a lot or parcel of ground in the county aforesaid, distinguished by lot number fourteen, in New Freedom, but my mistake was returned by the sheriff as lot number fourteen in New-town, and condemnation obtained thereon at the following term, on which judgment of condemnation feri facias issued, and the said lot was sold by the sheriff, and purchased by said Patrick M'Gill, to whom the said lot was by said sheriff conveyed as lot number fourteen in New-town: And whereas the title of the said Patrick M'Gill, by reason of the error aforesaid, is rendered doubtful and incomplete in said lot; for remedy whereof,

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the sheriff of Frederick county execute a new deed to the said Patrick M'Gill, to be duly acknowledged and recorded within the time limited by law for the recording of deeds, for the lot and premises that was actually sold under the attachment referred to in this bill, for such an estate or interest as was by him or his deputy sold to the said M'Gill, and that such deed shall have the same effect and operation as if no mistake had been made on the return of said attachment; provided, that nothing herein contained, or the said deed, shall extend or be construed to affect the right which any other person may have acquired to the said lot and premises.

Sheriff to execute a new deed, &c.

C H A P. XLIII.

An ACT to lay out and make a public road from the Black house in Harford county to intersect the Pennsylvania line.

Passed 8th of
January, 1803.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of sundry inhabitants of Harford county, that they labour under great inconvenience for want of a public road from a place known by the name of the Black House, and leading past Henry Myer's mill, to intersect the Pennsylvania line and a road leading by a certain doctor Boyd's, and praying that a road may be laid off accordingly; and the same being reasonable, therefore,

Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Josiah Carter, James Varney and Thomas Hope, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners, and they, or a majority of them, are hereby authorised and empowered to view, lay out, survey, mark and bound, a road, beginning at the place known by the name of the Black House, and running thence agreeably to the old road as now used, except where the same, in the judgment of the said commissioners, may require to be streightened,

Commissioners appointed, &c.
